Dianna has over 15 years of experience championing innovative workforce initiatives and creating meaningful opportunities for individuals to thrive. Known for a collaborative, engagement-driven approach and a deep commitment to strengthening communities, Dianna brings both strategic vision and a people-first mindset to their work.

Equipped with a B.A. in History, Dianna has developed a strong appreciation for storytelling, research, and the broader social forces that shape communities and career pathways alike.

Rooted in Bucks County, Dianna enjoys a fulfilling life with her family and takes pride in staying actively connected to the region they serve. Outside of their professional role, she is an enthusiastic supporter of Philadelphia's sports and can often be found embracing the outdoors through hiking, fishing, and exploring the scenic landscapes and hidden gems of Bucks County.
